Longwood's Myers, Delaware State's Haas Earn Weekly Honors

Alex Meyers

Courtney Haas

Longwood's Alex Meyers and Delaware State's Courtney Haas have been named as the United Soccer Conference's Player and Goalie of the Week for games played last week. It is the first weekly honor earned by each.

Meyers, a freshman forward from Stafford, Va., scored one goal and had four shots on the week, three on goal. Against ASU, Myers fired on shot that was on goal. In the Lancers USC opener, Myers scored her first collegiate goal against the Highlanders. The goal was a game-winner. Myers ended up firing a total of three shots, two on goal.

Meyers is now tied for her team lead in goals (one) while having only taken five shots (four on goal).

Haas, a freshman from Germantown, Md., recorded her first career shutout as the two teams played to a 0-0 draw. For the week Haas recorded 110 minutes in goal, surrendering no goals with six saves.

Haas is the second Delaware State keeper and only the fifth USC goalie to record a shutout this season. Haas now ranks third in GAA (1.96) and save percentage (.744).
